

This Fernald Proposed Performance Management Plan has been approved by Jessie Roberson, the Department of Energy's Assistant Secretary for Environmental Management, and was submitted to the Office of Management and Budget as a formal Department of Energy Environmental Management request in August, 2002. It has not yet received final approval by the Administration.